Seven Pencilers Were Kept Busily Engaged in Writing and Cashing Winning Tickets, the Good Things All Receiving Liberal Backing-The Attendance Large.

The ettendance was large, the betting lively, and the fields big at the Alexander Island track yesterday afternoon, serving to make everyone satisfied saving the seven bookmakers, who were kept well engaged easting winning tickets. Four first favorites won and the odd event was captured by a well-lancied third choice, the talent being very much in evidence.

The only upset occurred in the fourth race whom Pilgrim, at 4 to 1, jumped out in front, made all the rouning, and was never headed, winning cloverly from Lento, who beat Quartermaster a head for the place. There were no close finishes, the winners having some-thing to spare at the end. Summaries: How the Horses Ran,

BOOM IN THE Y. M. C. A.

One Hundred and Slaty New Names Added in the Past Month-

Members of the Y. M. C. A. to the number of 200 gathered in the gymnasium Monday evening to attend the regular monthly meet ing of the association. The programme differed somewhat from the usual order of exercises, and recitations and refreshments exercises, and recitations and retresmants and ded to the pleasantness of the occasion.
In order not to deprive the members of the privileges of the gymnasium the meeting was not called to order until 9:15. Then President
L. Cabell Williamson rapped for order, and after the assembled members sang sevand after the assembled members sang several Gospel choruses he made a brief speech referring to the work of the association during the past mouth, and reminded the members of the great possibilities of the future.

President Williamson was fallowed by Becording Secretary Lichliter, who reported that during the past month 160 new members had been enrolled. This, he said, was with a single exception the largest number of members who had ever joined the association in one mouth. After the audience had sung another mouth. After the audience had sung another Gospei chorus President Williamson intro-duced Mr. Guy Y. Collins, who gave a hurous regitation and was obliged to render two encores.

Then Secretary Pugh spoke to the members for a few moments concerning the purpose and work of the association. It was neither altogether intellectual, playeal, or religious, he said, but a grand combination of all these

It was with gratitude and pride that he re-It was with gratitude and pride that he re-ferred to the fact that 160 new names had been enrolled during the past month, and said the members should not be satisfied with even such a large growth, and he hoped that the association would be able, by its large and ever-increasing membership, to prove the necessity for a new building Prof. Sims also made a brief humorous speech, and then the lee cream was served in large quantities.

HIS HEART WAS BREAKING.

An Unfortunate Love Affair Caused Young Stauffer to Attempt Suicide. PHILADELPRIA, Pa. Oct. 16.—W. E. Stauffer, a well-dressed, good-looking man of about twenty-four years, engaged a room at Dooner's Hotel this evening, and five minutes afterward shot himself in the left breast with a revolver. Stauffer registered from Ashland, Ohio. A physician was summoned and the young man was removed to the Jefferson Hospital, where little hope of his recovery is entertained,

The bullet was extracted from the back. The bullet was extracted from the back. Stauffer, who retained consciousness after the shooting, said that his act was the result of a love affair, and one of three letters which he left was addressed to Miss Lois Starr, of Ashiand, to whom he referred as a lovely girl. He expressed regrei for his deed and asked for a minister. The second letter was asked for a minister. The second letter was addressed to his mother, and read: "Forgive me dear mother, you do not know how oft my heart was breaking."

The other was to the hotel proprietor and ran as follows: "I have a widowed mother living in ashland, Ohio, by the name of Mrs. M. W. Stauffer. Do not break the news suddenly to her. My effects are at 650 Ocean avenue, Jersey Chy, N. J. Return my railway passes to the Pullman Company."

Stauffer had no baggage except an overcost and umbreils, and paid for his room in advance. He showed no traces of liquor and spoke rationally after the shooting. His mother was telegraphed for.
